Holy Eucharist: Rite II
The Fifth Sunday of Easter
April 28, 2024
11:15 AM

Loving God ♦ Serving Others ♦ Living Our Faith

Welcome to St. Thaddeus

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us today! This service is but a small part of the continual prayer and praise offered to God by Christians at every hour and in every part of the world. At times, it may feel as if you are dropping in on a conversation already in progress between God and God's people, which continues unto the ages. Don't be surprised or disturbed if there are some things that you don't understand right away—and don't be embarrassed to ask for help. We pray that this service invites you into the ongoing stream of prayer and praise that unites us all—on Earth and in Heaven—as one Body of Christ.

We invite all baptized Christians to receive the Holy Eucharist at the altar. If you desire for communion to be brought to you in your seat by one of the ministers, please inform an usher.

Please enter the church quietly in order not to disturb those who are in prayer, and take care to silence all noise-making devices. Children are especially encouraged and welcome to participate in all aspects of worship! "Holy wiggles" are a sure and certain sign of life and joy!

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

ACTS 8:26-40

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: "Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth." The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?" He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 22:24-30 (metrical version – sung by the Choir and Congregation)

All remain seated.

1. Amid the congregation I
 Will pay my vows and raise my voice;
 The poor shall eat and have their fill,
 And those who seek God will rejoice.

2. All nations of the earth shall turn
 And come to worship God alone,
 For sovereignty belongs to God,
 Who rules the nations from the throne.

3. My soul shall live for God alone.
 My heirs shall keep the Lord's command,
 And future ages shall proclaim
 The saving deeds of God's right hand.

SECOND READING

1ST JOHN 4:7-21

A Reading from the first letter of John.

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

SEQUENCE: HYMN 323

BREAD OF HEAVEN

THE GOSPEL

JOHN 15:1-8

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

THE REVEREND DR. MARSHALL A. JOLLY

All stand as you are able.

NICENE CREED

BCP p. 358

Eucharistic Prayer D is among the most ancient liturgies of the Church, adapted from the Liturgy of Saint Basil in the 4th century. So central was that community's understanding of Christ's presence in the Eucharistic feast that the Prayers and Intercessions of the gathered community were inserted into the Eucharistic Prayer, as though those in worship were literally speaking to Christ himself, present in the Eucharist. During this season, our Prayers of the People are included in the Eucharistic Prayer.

PEACE

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Celebrant gives an offertory sentence.

The people remain standing

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds.

Then the Celebrant and People sing together.

THE SANCTUS (S-128)

WILLIAM MATHIAS

The people stand or kneel as the Celebrant continues.

The Celebrant then says

And now, as our Savior

Christ has taught us,

we are bold to sing,

CALLING ALL ACOLYTES: Please plan to attend one of two upcoming acolyte trainings at St. Thaddeus! The first will be held after the 11:15 service on Sunday, May 5 and the second will be held between the 9 and 11:15 services on Sunday, May 12. Please contact Fr. Joseph with any questions.

CONGRATULATIONS: to Marianne Swearingen, Ellison Weist, Will Gibbs, and Gibert Kennedy who were elected by the Vestry to represent St. Thaddeus as delegates to the 102nd Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina, and to Susan Stribling, Ray Buchholz, and Ed Schneider who were elected as alternate delegates. Thank you for offering yourselves in the Lord's service!

SAVE THE DATE - APRIL 26, 2025: Although it is a year away, we are too excited to wait to tell you we are resuming the St. Thaddeus Home and Garden Tour. Originating in the 1960s, the tour is a well-loved tradition of both St. Thaddeus and the surrounding community. The 2020 tour was canceled due to COVID-19 but we are ready to pull out all the stops to make the 2025 tour the absolute best! A planning committee is being formed and will kick off in August 2024. If you are interested in joining the leadership team, contact me at lyddiehansen068@gmail.com or call me at 803-645-5548. Not only will we have a lot of fun, the proceeds from the tour will go to local charities.

EVENSONG SERVICE: Please join us for an Evensong commemorating the Ascension of Our Lord, to be held on Thursday, May 9, 2024, at 6 pm in the Church.

PARISH CLEANUP DAY: Please mark your calendars for Parish Clean Up Day on Saturday, May 18, 2024. Look for details in next week's email and bulletin.
